Documents You Will Need

Admission decisions are based on the information provided in the Supplemental Application. Please provide complete and accurate information. You will be required to provide information about your overall grade point average (GPA), transfer credits, General Education and Preparation for the Major courses.

Before you start the application, you will need to collect the following documents:

- All college transcripts
- Military transcripts (if applicable)
- Advanced Placement score reports (if applicable)
- International Baccalaureate certificates or diplomas (if applicable)
- General Education Certification Worksheet (if applicable)

You should refer to these documents as you complete the Supplemental Application.

Important Information About the Admissions Process

SDSU WebPortal

Refer to the SDSU WebPortal for important dates and updates regarding your admission status. Admission decisions will be available in your Admission Status menu option beginning in March 2019.

Course Equivalencies

Visit www.assist.org or www.sdsu.edu/tap to view information about course equivalencies that may satisfy General Education and Preparation for the Major at SDSU.

Official Transcripts

If you are offered admission to SDSU, you will be required to submit official transcripts that verify the information you provided. If there is a discrepancy between your transcripts and the information you provide on the Supplemental Application, your offer of admission may be withdrawn.

Grade Point Average

You must maintain the overall college grade point average (GPA) reported on your Supplemental Application throughout the admission process. If you do not complete all in progress or planned courses with grades of “C-” or higher by the end of spring 2019, your offer of admission may be withdrawn. Note: Some impacted majors require grades higher than “C-” in specific Preparation for the Major courses.

Grade Point Average (GPA)

Enter your overall college grade point average (GPA) for all transferable units and grades. Transferable units are those that apply to a bachelor's degree (baccalaureate level) and are not remedial, vocational, professional or technical in nature. Go to www.assist.org, CSU Transferable Courses, for information about California State University community college courses.

3.85

Grade Point Average (GPA) = Total grade points divided by total units attempted.

Save Now!

How to determine total grade points:

Calculate the grade point average (GPA) by first assigning grade points for each transferable unit.

Grade	Points per Unit	Grade	Points per Unit
A	4.0	C	2.0
A-	3.7	C-	1.7
B+	3.3	D+	1.3
B	3.0	D	1.0
B-	2.7	D-	0.7
C+	2.3	F	0.0

To calculate your grade points, multiply the number of course units by the number of grade points for the grade you earned. Use the chart above and your transcript(s).

How to determine units attempted:

Calculate all transferable units attempted at all regionally accredited colleges and/or universities attended.

How to determine Grade Point Average (GPA):

Divide the total grade points by the total units attempted to get the grade point average (GPA).

Tip: If you have attempted courses from both quarter and semester schools, first convert quarter units to semester units by multiplying quarter units and grade points by 2/3, then proceed with calculating all semester units and grade points using the instructions above.

Enter your overall college Grade Point Average (GPA) for all transferable units, including fall 2018 grades.

Transferable units are those that apply to the bachelor's degree (baccalaureate level) and are not remedial, vocational, professional or technical in nature.

Tip: If you have attempted courses from both quarter and semester schools, first convert quarter units to semester units by multiplying quarter units and grade points by 2/3, then proceed with calculating all semester units and grade points using the instructions above.

I hold a bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited U.S. college/university and wish to obtain a BS in Nursing.

I hold a bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited U.S. college/university plus an Associate Degree in Nursing (ADN) or Diploma in Nursing from another college and wish to obtain a BS in Nursing.

I have completed an Associate Degree in Nursing (ADN) or Diploma in Nursing from another college and wish to obtain a BS in Nursing.

Additional Questions

Have you ever been dismissed or disqualified from a registered nursing program? Examples include: Associate degree, Bachelor's degree, Accelerated BS in Nursing, Masters Entry Program, etc.

Yes

No

Have you completed a certificate or licensure program for an allied health profession? Examples include: nursing assistant, medical assistant, licensed vocational nurse, respiratory therapy, corpsman, etc.

Yes

No

Will you be able to submit documentation to verify the completion of 100 hours of paid work experience (minimum) while certified or licensed in an allied health profession?

Yes

No

Nursing applicants will indicate if they are:

- seeking to continue pre-licensure coursework in pursuit of the BS in Nursing; or
- hold a bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited U.S. college/university; or
- hold a bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited U.S. college/university and Associate Degree in Nursing (ADN) or Diploma in Nursing; or
- have completed an Associate Degree in Nursing (ADN) or Diploma in Nursing.

Transfer and Second Bachelor's students applying to Nursing's pre-licensed program will be asked to provide information regarding the Test of Essential Academic Skills (TEAS).

All Nursing applicants must answer additional nursing program questions.

 Summer 2019 or later

You indicated the following California Community College has awarded or will award your AA-T or AS-T degree: GROSSMONT COLLEGE.

Has the California Community College awarding your AA-T or AS-T degree changed from what is listed above?

- Yes
 No

Students who indicated they have completed or will complete an Associate for Transfer degree are required to obtain verification of the status of their AA-T or AS-T from the California Community College awarding the degree. Degree verifications must be received by SDSU by the deadlines described below.

Applicants who indicated that they were completing an SDSU major with an approved corresponding Associate in Arts for Transfer (AA-T) or Associate in Science for Transfer (AS-T) degree must indicate if they have earned or are on track to complete the AA-T/AS-T degree, by spring 2019. Applicants who respond "yes" must complete additional questions.

Instructions:

ADT preliminary verifications can be sent to San Diego State University by using any of the following options:

- E-Verify - Your California community college confirms you earned or will earn your ADT by spring 2019 using the CSU Associate Degree for Transfer E-Verify website.
- Official Transcript - Your California community college sends an official transcript to SDSU with your awarded ADT degree information including degree type, major name and graduation date.

- SDSU will accept only electronic transcripts from the schools listed on the Transcripts page. Please ensure that you indicate this preference when making your request
- For colleges that do not supply electronic transcripts, the school should send the transcripts (received no later than March 15, 2019) directly to:

Office of Admissions
San Diego State University
5500 Campanile Dr.
San Diego, CA 92182-7455

- Verification of Intent to Earn Associate of Arts/Science Degree-Transfer Form - Your California community college confirms you earned or will earn your ADT by spring 2019 using the Verification of Intent to Earn Associate of Arts/Science Degree-Transfer Form.
- The college should mail the completed form (received no later than March 15, 2019) directly to:

Office of Admissions
San Diego State University
5500 Campanile Dr.
San Diego, CA 92182-7455

Contact your California community college if you have any questions about the ADT verification process.

Tip: For many California Community Colleges, graduation is not automatic upon the completion of all degree requirements. It is often the student's responsibility to submit a graduation application during published time periods. To avoid delays in the evaluation, degree verification and granting of your AA-T or AS-T degree, be sure to contact your community college for information on how and when to submit your graduation application.

Verification deadlines:

Preliminary verification of the status of your AA-T or AS-T must be received by SDSU no later than March 15, 2019. Final verification of an AA-T or AS-T being awarded by spring 2019 must be received by SDSU no later than June 30, 2019.
